The memorial service of Alexandria Council No. 33, Junior Order United Americans, as heretofore announced, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the National Cemetery at four o'clock.
Earlier in the day the committees having in charge the exercises will decorate the graves of the deceased members of the council. The following is the order of the exercises:

Mansfield; prayer, Rev. W. F. Watson; singing; announcement of names of deceased members, Mr. J. W. Willis; singing; memorial address, Mr. Orlando H. Daniels; singing; address, Rev. J.
M. Holmes; singing by the choir, the choir of the First Baptist Church,

THE MARKET.

The offerings of country produce in market this morning showed an increase over those of last Saturday. Eggs were still high, selling at 24 cents a dozen.
Fresh butter was plentiful and some country people experienced difficulty in disposing of their stock at 20 cents a pound. Strawberries were not as abundant as had been expected. The better varieties brought 10 cents a box; others were disposed of at three boxes for 25 cents, and in some instances four boxes were sold for that sum. Green peas were 13 cents a quart; of peas; cabbage 4 to 5 cents a head; potatoes 10 cents a quarter of a peck; radishes 1 to 3 cents a bunch; lettuce 1 cent a head; onions from 2 to 3 cents a bunch; kale 5 cents a quarter of a peck; carrots 30 cents a dozen; rhubarb 3 cents a bunch. There was a fine display of flowers.

LECTURE BY A JAPANESE.
Dr. Masuji Miyakawa, formerly connected with the Japanese Embassy in Washington, will deliver two illustrated lectures on "The Japan of Today," in the Young People's Building, on Monday May 31, and Tuesday June 1. Dr.
Miyakawa is an educated man and a most interesting conversationalist. Mr. Percy S. Foster, of Washington, writes concerning lecturer: "The Immanuel Baptist Bible School had the pleasure of presented Doctor Miyakawa for his first public lecture upon 'The Japan of Today.' A very large audience was present, and it was the unanimous opinion that the lecture was both interesting and profitable.
The stereopticon slides were good, and some of the motion pictures considered quite superior."

DEATHS.

Elizabeth C. Adam, an old, well-known and respected native of this city, died at her home, 128 south Washington street, this morning. The deceased was 80 years of age and was a sister of the late John C. Adam, and for many years had been a inmate of the female institute in this city. She had been a life-long member of the Second Baptist Church, and had many friends who will regret her passing.

Waiting for the Verdict

Case of Johnson Given to the Jury Last Night—Jury Asks for Repetition of Testimony of Conductor Rittenour, Officer Garvey and Henry Smith.

After the examination of the remainder of the witnesses who had been summoned to testify in the Corporation Court in the case of Olevia Johnson, colored, indicted for the murder of Walter F. Schultz, the testimony of the witnesses having appeared in the Gazette, Commonwealth's Attorney S.
G. Breet began his argument. It was 3:55 o'clock when Mr. Breet began, and he spoke one hour. He analyzed the case, reviewing the testimony of each witness who had taken the stand, and maintained that the prisoner (Johnson), Richard Pines and Eugene Dorsey had utterly failed to make clear to the jury their whereabouts between the hours of seven and eight o'clock on the night of Saturday, March 6. Mr. Breet dwelt upon the fact that the evidence of a policeman of the city was to the effect that early on that night he met and conversed with the prisoner; that the latter had been committed and Johnson resulted in the finding of a pair of overalls upon which bloodstains appar-[These had been brought into the court, and Mr. Breet at times directed the attention of the jury to them.]

Mr. L. H. Machen, counsel for Johnson, began his argument at 5 o'clock and spoke for 45 minutes. Mr. Machen made an earnest appeal for the acquittal of the prisoner, he claiming that there was no evidence to show that Johnson had anything to do with the murder of Schultz. He made a thorough review of the evidence in the case, and summed it up from the standpoint of the defense in a forceful manner.

At six o'clock a recess was taken until 7:30 o'clock at night, and long before that hour a crowd had gathered on the pavement in front of the court house. By the time the doors were opened the crowd had grown into large proportions.

Many of those who had assembled were allowed to enter the court house, and in a few minutes' time all seats were taken.

Mr. Machen resumed his argument, and at its close Mr. Breet made the final argument for the state, finishing at 9:25 o'clock, after which Judge Barley handed his instructions to the jury, and the case was turned over to them at 10:25 o'clock.

Some excitement was caused in the court room by one of the spectators fainting. He soon revived, however.

The crowd remained in the court room for a long time after the case had been turned over to the jury, and the assemblage on the pavement showed no signs of disbandment, but about ten o'clock numbers began to move away, and from that time up to midnight comparatively few persons were standing in front of the building.

It was nearing midnight when word came from the jury room that no agreement had been reached, and the court was subsequently adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, the jury having in the meantime been locked up.

Smith, Pines and Dorsey were sent out of the city yesterday afternoon, and they will remain in neighboring jails until their cases are called.

Shortly after the court met this morning a request came from the jury room that Conductor Rittenour, Officer Garvey and Henry Smith be again called to the stand.

At 1:20 the jury came into court and H. D. Kirk called Edwin Atkinson to the stand. The witness said he picked up a bird he shot near where the body was found and then turned to his right, examining the bird as he returned toward the stream. Closely questioned by Juror Pitts, Atkinson said there had been a body in the field he would have seen it Atkinson was subjected to a cross-fire of questions by different jurors.

Officer Garvey was asked about Smith's contention by Juror Pitts. Officer Garvey said he allowed Rittenour to see Smith Saturday night and Ritten-our said he looked like the man who picked a drunken white man on his car Friday night and got off at St. Elmo, except that the negro had on an overcoat. Officer Garvey said that he borrowed three overcoats and placed them on Smith, one at a time, Sunday morning, in the presence of Rittenour, and that the latter said he thought Smith was the man.

Officer Garvey said that he was not present when Smith made his confession.
Conductor Rittenour was also closely examined by several members of the jury by Judge Barley. He again recited his story about the white man and the negro who got off his car at St. Elmo, but could not identify a picture of Schultz's body.

Chief Goods was recalled and said that when conductor Rittenour came to police headquarters on Sunday morning he was not aware that Garvey had had Rittenour there the night before. The chief stated that Smith began to weaken Saturday and wept frequently. Later he called for Mr. Breet, made his confession and then acted as if a load had been lifted off his mind. Chief Goods gave a clear and concise story of everything leading up to the arrest of Smith and it was generally conceded that his testimony made a deep impression upon a majority of the jurors.

Conductor Rittenour was recalled again and subjected to another close questioning by the jury. Witness said he considered the negro a friend of the white man, but that the negro did not come forward to help the man off at St.

Elmo.

Henry Smith, one of the accused, was again called and stated positively that he was to the east of Schultz's body and Dorsey was on the same side. He stuck to his story that Dorsey and Johnson carried and dragged the man from Cameron and Payne streets to the field in which his body was found. He explained that the Earl woman spoke of his shoes being free of mud after he returned from the field by saying that he stopped at the door and cleaned his shoes with a broom, knowing that the woman was very particular.

Smith's story did not vary a particle from his original statement. He said again he never had worn an overcoat in his life and that on the evening of March 5 he was at home.

The jury then went to luncheon.
After Smith had been taken from the stand he was placed in charge of Officer Sampson who put him aboard an electric railway train and took him to the Alexandria county jail.

The jury returned from lunch shortly before 4 o'clock and retired to their room.

A DENIAL.

A statement printed in the Washington papers this morning to the effect that the committees on light and finance of the City Council has for some time been considering a resolution to vacate the contract of the city with the Alexandria Electric Company is denied by members of both committees. Capt. W.
H. Sweeney, chairman of the finance committee, stated today that last night he was asked by a reporter if the electric lights were satisfactory to the committee and he replied that they were not and that he wished the matter could be brought to an issue. He thinks the report published about vacating the contract originated from this casual conversation.

AMUSEMENTS.

It is understood that the managers of the Alexandria Amusement Company contemplate improvements to their hall which will aggregate several thousand dollars. The increase in the attendance makes this move necessary and the fact that the management intends to make this one of the most attractive show-houses in this city is additional reason for the improvement in the building.
There will be another first class show at this house tonight.

At the Surprise Theatre last night the Groom sisters, with their marvelous singing and dancing, literally charmed one of the largest audiences ever gathered in an amusement house. The singing of the English comedian, Ernest A.
Dupille, was wonderful, while the act of the juggler, George Russell, was far above those of a like character seen in this city. For an evening of rare entertainment visit either the Alexandria Amusement Co. or the Surprise.

PERSONAL.

Saint Agnes College, near Baltimore, will be Miss Mary Honora Harlow,

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks was held last night and considerable business transacted.

At the Baptist Church tomorrow morning Rev. W. F. Watson's subject will be "Assurance" and at night "The Redeemed."

This year Decoration Day falling on Sunday, Monday will be observed as a holiday and the banks and public offices will be closed on that day.

Engineer T. V. Owen, formerly of this city, was among the injured in the railroad wreck which occurred below Danville on Wednesday.

Rev. John Cavanaugh will hold services in the parlors of the Braddock House at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Leonard Cusmann, of Washington, alleges that his wife left him last April.
He says they were married in Alexandria, February 17 last. Infidelity is alleged and a co-respondent named in the petition filed.

Miss Elizabeth H. Marbury, daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Somer-vill Marbury, died at an advanced age at her home in Washington last Wednesday. She had many friends in this city.

Mr. M. E. Church, president and general manager of the Falls Church Telephone and Telegraph Company, has recently succeeded in forming an amalgamation of nearly all the principal telephone companies in Fairfax and Loudoun counties.

There was a well-attended meeting of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows last night and the third degree of the order was conferred upon five candidates and the first degree upon two. Officers were comitated and other business transacted.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie L.
Atwell, who died Thursday morning, took place from Demaine & Son's undertaking parlors this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P.
Phillips, and the interment was in Beth cemetery.

Considerable comment has been made on the "moving picture exhibit" of the court officials and jury on the streets and of the appearance of the prisoner handcuffed to policemen on different corners of the street, and the inquiry was made today if troops are next to be ordered out.

There will be preaching in Roberts Chapel M. E. Church at 10:45 a. m. tomorrow and a varied programme and installation of the officers of the Methodist Brotherhood at 8 p. m. with music by the choir. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. and Epworth League meeting at 4:30 p. m.

Miss Florence E. Birmingham and Mr. William Lewis Hayes, both of Alexandria, were married in Rockville, Thursday by Rev. S. R. White, of the Baptist Church. The ceremony took place in the presence of several guests.
The bridegroom gave his age as 38 years and that of the bride as 23.

There used to be a man over in England named Hobson (no ladies, we do not think this gentleman was ever kissed). He kept a livery stable and anyone who wanted to hire a horse from him, had to take the first one he came to. In this way they came to be known as "Hobson's Choice." Now this would be satisfactory as far as horses are concerned, but suppose we had to take our wives in this manner? Gosh! Mr. Einstein says, "There would be more misfits in der Garden of Love, and ladies, when you want something real good to eat, never think of taking 'Hobson's Choice,' but always come to the Auth Stand for these irresistibly delicious Auth Products.
